Additional information

A two-room apartment is being sold in a renovated residential building in the Mai district.

The apartment is in very good condition. The apartment was thoroughly renovated in 2012 and was used as a summer home. After the renovation, the apartment has not been permanently lived in.

The bedroom is separate, the living room and kitchen are open. The toilet and shower room are together. The shower room has underfloor heating.

Sold with the furnishings shown in the picture (the armchair will not remain). The kitchen furniture, washing machine, stove, hood, refrigerator will also remain inside.

The electrical wiring and plumbing have been replaced. Natural wooden parquet on the floor.

The apartment also has a basement box for use.

Utility bills in July 2024 were 110.29 euros, in January 2025 they were 145.82 euros.

The location is the best possible. There is a Selver store and Maxima within walking distance. The department store is not far either. Mai school is around the corner next door. There are two kindergartens in the Mai district. It is a 10-15 minute walk to the sea.

Everything you need for life is there, come and start living or spend the summer...

The house does not have a valid energy certificate.
